Volunteer Rights & Responsibilities:

The Pet Project Foundation (PPF) is a valuable resource to the Coastal Animal Services Authority (CASA), the animals under its care, the staff, and the public. Volunteers will be accorded the rights to be given meaningful assignments, receive effective supervision, and be recognized for work well done. In return, volunteers shall agree to perform their duties to the best of their abilities in accordance with the policies, procedures, and rules of the Coastal Animal Services Authority and PPF, and to remain loyal to their goals. As a volunteer, you are an important asset and vital to the welfare of the animals and our continuing success as a pro-humane shelter.

Our Pro-humane Philosophy for You to Understand and Accept

(If you have any questions about this form or the agreements herein, please speak to a Volunteer Coordinator or the Shelter management.):

I agree to comply with all policies and procedures during any activity that is related to the care, control, safekeeping, adoption, or euthanasia of the animals. I understand and support the idea that animals held at this Shelter are humanely euthanized when the animal is unduly suffering, presents a health risk to the shelter environment, or is considered to be dangerous to humans or other animals. I understand that all pets are spayed or neutered before adoption. I certify that all statements made are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Release and Waiver of Liability and Indemnity Agreement

I choose to participate in a volunteer assignment at the Coastal Animal Services Authority (aka CASA; aka San Clemente-Dana Point Animal Shelter) and Pet Project Foundation (PPF) and be subject to and abide by all applicable policies and procedures governing such an assignment. I understand and agree that the CASA Animal Services Program Manager (CASA General Manager) or PPF may end my assignment at any time without advanced notice or right of appeal. I am aware of and accept the fact that this volunteer assignment may present physical risks, including risks that could lead to severe bodily harm and/or injury, including death. I fully understand that the behavior of animals can be unpredictable and animals are capable of inflicting property damage as well as serious physical injury or death. The CASA shelter environment may also carry personal risks of zoonotic disease and a variety of other diseases and infections. I hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Cities of San Clemente and Dana Point, the Joint Powers Authority of the Coastal Animal Services Authority, PPF, its officers, agents and employees against any and all claims, liabilities, and losses relating to any type of personal injury and/or death, economic loss, and/or property damage arising out of my participation in a volunteer assignment at CASA, whether known or unknown at the time of signing this agreement, and such waiver applies to my heirs, next of kin, or any other person or persons who have or claim to have an interest in my person. I agree to assume all risks for any injury, death, damage, loss or expense, to my person and/or property, arising out of my participation as a CASA volunteer. I understand, agree, and accept that if I am injured while performing my assigned responsibilities as a volunteer that I am covered under the CASA's Workers' Compensation program.

I agree to provide proof of comprehensive vehicle insurance should I volunteer to use my personal vehicle while performing volunteer services. Additionally, I agree to only operate a vehicle with a current, valid, California Driver's License in my possession at the time of operating a vehicle.

My signature below represents that I understand the nature and risks of the volunteer activities associated with the CASA and PPF and that I have read, understand, accept, and agree with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
